Licensor and Licensee agree that they will work together to correct the access breach as soon as possible so that access can be restored.

7. Warranties

Licensor warrants and represents that it has the complete right to enter this agreement and to deliver the Licensed Materials. This warranty is in lieu of any and all other warranties, written or oral, express or implied, including without limitation, warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. APA expressly disclaims the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.
- 7.2 Although care has been used in accuracy, completeness, or functioning thereof, Licensor assumes no responsibility for the Licensee's, Member Sites' or Authorized Users' use thereof and shall not be liable for loss of profits, loss of use, or incidental, consequential, or exemplary damages as a result of such use, even if aware of the possibility thereof.
- 7.3 In no event may the Licensee or Member Sites bring any action arising out of the License more than three (3) years after the claim or cause of action arises. Licensor shall in no event be liable for more than the Fees paid (whether in contract or in tort, including negligence and strict liability).

8. General

- 8.1 This Agreement incorporates the cover sheet and all its terms authorizing access to APA data.
- 8.2 No modification or amendment of this Agreement shall be binding upon either party unless it shall be in writing and signed by persons authorized to bind the parties to this License.

- 8.3 This License is not assignable without the Licensor's written permission. This License shall be binding upon heirs, successors, and assigns of the parties hereto.
- 8.4 If any one or more of the provisions of the License shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the same shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provisions of the License.
- 8.5 Neither party's delay or failure to perform any provision of this License, as result of circumstances beyond its control (including, without limitation, war, strikes, floods, governmental restrictions, power, telecommunications or Internet failures, or damage to or destruction of any network facilities) shall be deemed to be, or give rise to, a breach of this License.
- 8.6 If there are any disputes or disagreements, both parties agree to work in good faith to resolve the issues.
- 8.7 This License shall be governed by and construed in accordance with state or jurisdiction law as indicated on the cover sheet. The parties irrevocably agree that any dispute arising out of or in connection with this License will be subject to and within the jurisdiction of the courts of that entity.

9. Payment and Renewals

- 9.1 The term of this Agreement shall be as set forth on the cover sheet, terminating at midnight on the last day of the term. This License shall be renewed for successive periods upon mutual agreement of the parties.
- 9.2 The primary vendor for delivery of content is indicated on the cover sheet to this agreement. The Licensee may substitute other vendors upon notice to Licensor. During the term of the access period, Licensee may contract with multiple providers for the Database(s) with no additional data fee to Licensor. Licensee must inform Licensor of such agreements or renewals.
- 9.3 Under this agreement, the Licensee will pay mutually agreed fees to vendor on behalf of Licensor for the use of the data. Fees paid to Licensor are APA fees for data use only and do not include the vendor surcharge for accessing the database. All vendor access fees are the responsibility of the Licensee.
- 9.4 If the Licensee does not pay the Fee(s) or fulfill the obligations of Paragraph 3 and 5 above, the Licensor shall have the option to cancel the License effective thirty (30) days following the date on which the Licensor mails, by registered mail, written notice of such cancellation to the Licensee at the business address stated on the first page of the agreement.
- 9.5 If the Licensee does not renew the license at the end of the term specified on the cover sheet, the Licensee may obtain access to the content published during the time they paid for annual site licenses as described in Schedule A.

APA Archiving and Access Policy For Electronic Databases

Archiving by APA

APA is committed to preserving the knowledge base in psychology and to serving user and customer needs. To ensure preservation of the knowledge base, APA maintains a digital archive of all databases and will convert that archive as technology changes.

Access to Data

APA recognizes the business needs of libraries and other customers to retain potential access to content for which they have purchased current access. APA's annual data fees cover current content. As a courtesy to customers and users, APA provides at least 10 years of older content without additional fees during the period of time the customer pays for a site license. If, at a later date, a customer does not renew the site license, they will retain rights to access all content added to the database in the years from the first actual year through the last year for which they paid data fees, without paying additional data fees. If the customer desires access to content files from years prior to the years in which they paid, APA will make those files available for a fee.

Delivery of Data

APA is committed to providing customers options for delivery for site licenses. In general, those options include customer loading, access through several vendors, or access directly from APA, and there is a separate cost for delivery. The customer who has stopped paying for an annual site license may also choose one of these options for the segment of content for which they retain rights. Although they would not pay ongoing data fees, they would pay for the delivery of the content.

This policy will apply to all APA-owned content. As APA negotiates contracts with other content owners, the association will encourage those owners to agree to the same terms as part of their participation in the database.

Example: Customer pays annual access and data fees for a database for 10 years. In the eleventh year the customer does not renew access. At that point they retain rights to get access to content APA published during the 10 years in which they paid both data and access fees. If they wish to get access to data published in prior years, they may pay a separate data fee. Delivery of the content entails a separate fee, just as it does with annual licenses.
